THE EEOC IS CLOSING ITS FILE ON THIS CHARGE FOR THE FOLLOWING REASON:

- ☐ The facts alleged in the charge fail to state a claim under any of the statutes enforced by the EEOC.
- ☐ Your allegations did not involve a disability as defined by the Americans with Disabilities Act.
- ☐ The Respondent employs less than the required number of employees or is not otherwise covered by the statutes.
- ☐ Your charge was not timely filed with EEOC; in other words, you waited too long after the date(s) of the alleged discrimination to file your charge.
- ☐ Having been given 30 days in which to respond, you failed to provide information, failed to appear or be available for interviews/conferences, or otherwise failed to cooperate to the extent that it was not possible to resolve your charge.
- ☐ While reasonable efforts were made to locate you, we were not able to do so.
- ☐ You were given 30 days to accept a reasonable settlement offer that affords full relief for the harm you alleged.
- ☒ The EEOC issues the following determination: Based upon its investigation, the EEOC is unable to conclude that the information obtained establishes violations of the statutes. This does not certify that the respondent is in compliance with the statutes. No finding is made as to any other issues that might be construed as having been raised by this charge.
- ☐ The EEOC has adopted the findings of the state or local fair employment practices agency that investigated this charge.
- ☐ Other (briefly state)

- NOTICE OF SUIT RIGHTS -

(See the additional information attached to this form.)

Title VII, the Americans with Disabilities Act, and/or the Age Discrimination in Employment Act: This will be the only notice of dismissal and of your right to sue that we will send you. You may file a lawsuit against the respondent(s) under federal law based on this charge in federal or state court. Your lawsuit must be filed WITHIN 90 DAYS of your receipt of this Notice; or your right to sue based on this charge will be lost. (The time limit for filing suit based on a state claim may be different.)

Equal Pay Act (EPA): EPA suits must be filed in federal or state court within 2 years (3 years for willful violations) of the alleged EPA underpayment. This means that backpay due for any violations that occurred more than 2 years (3 years) before you file suit may not be collectible.

RE: Proposed Suspension Notice

Dear Mr. Smith:

This letter is to notify you of a recommendation for suspension. Your suspension has been proposed for the following reasons: Insubordination.

You have ten (10) calendar days from receipt of this notice to request in writing a hearing regarding your proposed suspension. If you desire a hearing, you should address and direct your written request to Mr. Randall A. Estes, P. E., Division Engineer, at the above address.

If you desire, you may request to review your personnel file and any departmental investigative report regarding the proposed suspension. If you desire copies of any documents, the cost of reproduction is $.35 per page. If you request a hearing, you must bring two copies of each document you desire to be considered by the hearing officer and one copy for the department.

You may have witnesses appear to provide information to the hearing officer on your behalf. You may ask questions of any witness who appears on behalf of the department. You may also be represented by counsel at your expense if you desire.

After the hearing is completed, a recommendation regarding your proposed suspension will be forwarded to the Director, who will notify you of the final decision.

Sincerely,

MEMORANDUM

To: Mark Waits
District Three Engineer

From: Patrick T. Jackson

Re: Employee Meeting

While on the project this morning, Mr. James Feagin requested a meeting with me. Below are the employees that were present at the meeting.

James Feagin	Melvin Wynn
Eric Robbins	Frank Hollifield
Jesse Taylor	Alverene Butler
Kelvin Wynn	Karen Stacey

Mr. Feagin stated that they felt that they have been placed in a "hostile work environment" by Mr. Peter Smith and Ms. Reeser Knight. Mr. Feagin stated that Peter and Reeser were constantly writing down everything that was said or done. They felt afraid to go to the restroom or have a normal conversation without it being recorded or taken out of context.

Mr. Robbins stated that they impeded work and were combative when given instruction about work. All were in agreement that Mr. Smith and Ms. Knight were making their work environment difficult, and "wanted something done about it."

I told them that I had talked to Mr. Furlow on Tuesday, August 24, 2004 about this same subject and I felt that the situation with Peter and Reeser was starting to disrupt my office. I assured them that I was trying to do everything I could about this situation and I felt that you were doing all that you could as well. I told them that Ms. Knight was having a hearing on her suspension on Friday, August 27, 2004, but Mr. Smith's hearing had been cancelled.

Since I currently have grievances filed against me by these two employees, I am unsure of what my role should or could be in trying to solve the problems that these other employees feel are being created by Mr. Smith and Ms. Knight. I did tell them that I would write to you and express their concerns to you.

Sincerely,

Patrick T. Jackson

Re: Reynolds v. Alabama Department of Transportation
CV-85-T-665-N

Dear Mr. Smith:

In January 2000, United States District Judge Myron Thompson found the Alabama Department of Transportation in contempt of court because they had not complied with the Reynolds v. ALDOT consent decree. Judge Thompson then assigned Special Master Carlos Gonzalez to determine whether individual African-American employees of the Department of Transportation had been denied a promotion because of ALDOT's contempt. Your name was submitted to Special Master Gonzalez as one of those individuals who was denied such a promotion. A listing of the jobs you applied or were qualified for was also submitted to the Special Master. The Special Master has now asked each plaintiff to review this list of jobs and to identify the one job each plaintiff seeks.

The enclosed form lists each of the jobs you applied for or were qualified for during the relevant time period. Please review this list and select the one job to which you would most like to be promoted. This information will then be forwarded to the Special Master. The Special Master has emphasized that you must list one and only one job for your promotion claim - you may lose your right to pursue any claims for contempt remedies if you select more than one job. If you are not interested in pursuing a promotion claim based on the defendants' contempt, there is a space provided to indicate that on the form. If you check the box stating that you do not wish to pursue a promotion claim, we will withdraw your claim from the proceedings.

Please note that identifying the job you would like to be promoted to does not entitle you to an automatic promotion. The Department of Transportation does not agree that any plaintiff class members are entitled to promotions because of the contempt. Your claim for a promotion may be the subject of a hearing or trial before the Special Master. No date has been set for such a hearing. It is also important to note that if you do receive a promotion as a result of these proceedings, you will not receive any back pay or other monetary relief for any promotion that you were denied before May 29, 2001, as those monetary claims were settled with the other back-pay and promotion claims in 2001.

Please complete the enclosed form and return it in the envelope provided. Your response must be postmarked by August 2, 2004. The Special Master has not given us very much time to supply him with the requested information, so it is crucial that you send the paperwork in on time. You may lose your right to pursue a contempt claim for a promotion if your response is not postmarked by August 2. Should you have any questions concerning this matter, please direct them to Kell Simon or Wallace Blizzard at the following address:
